

KITH & KIN

The debut 2020 Kith and Kin Chardonnay was sourced from a neighboring vineyard in Rutherford. Pressed whole cluster, crémant style to preserve natural acidity and deliver fresh, aroma-driven, minerality. This wine is about preserving the freshness of the fruit and maximizing its inherent deliciousness.

“A debut variety for this label. Stainless steel fermented and aged for five months, it was pressed whole cluster, crémant style which resulted in fine acidity and an inner sunshine. Its just-sliced lemon-fresh nose sends one to a perfectly balanced palate. Melon, guava, and banana are glossy and clean. The stony mid-to-finish leaves a trace of terroir on the tongue.” - Meredith May
